What other online back-up providers don't tell you

Selecting the best online backup and recovery solution for your business can be very confusing. There's a lot of misinformation and exaggerated claims out there. This is just a sampling of what some online back-up providers don't want their customers to know upfront.

- ❖ Software is not licensed for business use
- ❖ Restricts the types of files that can be backed-up
- ❖ Only backs-up personal documents – application files are not allowed
- ❖ 'Unlimited' storage is not really unlimited – storage capacity is subject to unpublished limits which can be changed at any time
